

Dated 19th September 2009

Dear Candidates,

Greetings from CCL, NLSIU!

The third contact class and the final exams for the Post Graduate Diploma in Child Rights Law will take place from November 19th to 22nd 2009. Detailed time table is given below:

Examination Schedule
November 2009

19.11.2009		Paper 1: Child, Family and State in India: Realities and Issues
	10 am to 12.00 noon	Revision
	2 pm to 5 pm	Written Examination
20.11.2009		Paper 2: Child Rights Policy and Law: International and National Framework
	10 am to 12.00 noon	Revision
	2 pm to 5 pm	Written Examination
21.11.2009		Paper 3: Key Legislations relating to Children in India
	10 am to 12.00 noon	Revision
	2 pm to 5 pm	Written Examination
22.11.2009		Paper 4: Working with Children from a Rights based Perspective
	10 am to 12.00 noon	Revision
	2 pm to 5 pm	Written Examination

Examination fee is Rs. 300 per paper (Rs.1200 for all the four papers). Last date for submitting the exam fee is October 31st 2009 that can be submitted either in person on any of the working days between 10.00 am to 3.30 pm (during the bank hours) OR can also be sent in the form of a DD payable to the Registrar, NLSIU, Bangalore.

This is also to inform all of you that the regulations for the distance courses have been revamped and the Projects/Dissertation and the Assignments have been scrapped by the University for the all the Diploma courses and the evaluations will be done on the basis of the in-class examination of 100 marks for each paper.

Hence the students who have not submitted their assignments and projects can also appear for the exams.

You can contact us for any further information and/or clarifications.

Best wishes,

Neetu Sharma
(Coordinator – PGDCRL)