a	 A wide-angle photograph of a modern classroom interior. The room features a semi-circular arrangement of light-colored wooden desks with integrated writing surfaces. Black ergonomic office chairs are positioned at each desk. The ceiling is white with recessed fluorescent lighting and several ceiling fans. Large windows with white frames are visible in the background, allowing natural light into the space. The floor is a light-colored tile.

b	 A photograph of the same classroom interior from a different angle. This view shows the curved desks and chairs more prominently, along with the ceiling structure and the windows. The lighting is bright and even, highlighting the clean, minimalist design of the furniture and the spacious layout of the room.
