NLSAT 2022: ANSWER KEY NOTIFICATION

- The Answer Key for NLSAT 2022 shall be released by 9 pm on April 24, 2022 on our admissions portal (<https://admissions.nls.ac.in>). Candidates may raise objections, if any, to the answer key using the link on the admissions portal.
- The portal for filing objections shall open at 9 pm on April 24, 2022 and close at 9 pm on April 25, 2022. No objections will be accepted after 9 pm on April 25, 2022.
- A fee of Rs. 1000 (Rupees One Thousand only) is to be paid for each answer that the candidate objects to. If the committee of experts set up by the University accepts the answer suggested by the candidate, the fee paid by all candidates who objected to that answer will be refunded. The refund will be made to the account/credit card etc., from which the payment was made. No request to pay to another account will be entertained.
- Any objection filed without paying the fee prescribed will not be examined or entertained
- Objections received over email or telephonically shall not be entertained.

PROCESS FOR RAISING OBJECTIONS

- Login to the Admissions Portal (<https://admissions.nls.ac.in/llb/>) using your username and password.
- From the drop-down menu, select the question, the answer to which you are challenging.
- From the drop down menu, select the response which you believe is correct.
- In the field "Justification for presumed answer" enter the reason why you think the answer in the answer key is incorrect
- Attach a document or a web link to justify your contention that the answer is wrong. The web link/document should contain information indicating that the response that you are suggesting is correct, is in fact the correct answer.
- You can either choose to "save and continue" to challenge other questions/answers to them, or to submit the objection.
- On hitting "Proceed to Payment," a preview page will appear indicating the details of your objections. After verifying that the information is correct, press "Click to Pay". The payment link becomes visible. Make the prescribed payment.
