ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS 15

The SBA Constitution came into being in AY 1999-2000. Amendment 1 was added soon thereafter. The SBA Constitution was amended once again in 2017-18. In 2021-22, the SBA Constitution was substantially revised, and all previous amendments were directly incorporated within the body of the text.

PREAMBLE

The National Law School of India University (University) was established in 1986 in the interests of better legal education and higher standards of legal research and professional training.

While the basic mandate of the University is to prepare conscientious and competent professionals, the University, in addition, aims to develop in the students a sense of responsibility by developing socially relevant skills and approaches.

In this context, the University gives importance to the development of an inclusive community life and the all-round development of each and every student. Towards this end, the University considers curricular, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities to be essential in building an inclusive community life and fostering the all-round development of the students in the University.

Consequently, the Student Bar Association was established with perpetual succession as an organization of students of the University with the aim to establish a forum that gives importance to the development of character, personality and leadership qualities. The Student Bar Association aims to represent the interests of all students in the University and improve their collective welfare. In achieving its objectives, the Student Bar Association shall be guided by the values of equity, inclusivity and fraternity.

Over the years of accumulated experience in the functioning of the Student Bar Association, it was felt that a New Constitution be adopted to govern itself and to better achieve the goals set out above.

ARTICLE 1 - THE STUDENT BAR ASSOCIATION (SBA)

- a) The SBA shall comprise students actively enrolled in a full-time academic programme on campus who may meet as a General Body in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution.
- b) The Vice-Chancellor of the University shall be the Patron of the SBA.
- c) The SBA shall function through its various organs detailed in this Constitution.
- d) The SBA Office-Bearers means the Co-Presidents of the SBA, who shall be the official representatives of the SBA.

ARTICLE 2 - THE GENERAL BODY OF THE SBA

- a) An ordinary meeting of the General Body of the SBA shall be convened by the Co-Presidents once a trimester by providing three days' notice. The agenda for an ordinary meeting shall be as follows:
 - i. Presentation of a report of the past activities and proposed activities for the trimester of the SBA.
 - ii. Presentation of a report on the finances of the SBA by the Convenor of the Finance Committee.
 - iii. Any issue or concern that a member of the SBA may have.

- b) Apart from the ordinary meetings of the General Body of the SBA, meetings of the General Body may be called only under the following circumstances:
- i. A special meeting of the General Body of the SBA, in connection with the removal of either Co-President (Article 9) or the amendment of this Constitution (Article 12) may be convened by the authorized person.
 - ii. An extraordinary meeting may be convened by the SBA Office-Bearers or the SBA Advisor under extraordinary circumstances for which reasonable notice shall be given.
 - iii. A meeting requisitioned in writing by at least 20% of the members of the SBA by providing three days' notice along with the agenda for such meeting shall be convened by the SBA Office-Bearers.
- c) Except as provided in this Constitution with respect to special meetings, the quorum for the meetings of the General Body shall be 30% of the total strength of the SBA.

ARTICLE 3 - THE SBA COMMITTEES AND JOURNALS

- a) The conduct and coordination of the various activities of the SBA shall be enabled and facilitated by the SBA Committees listed in Schedule 1, and SBA Journals in Schedule 2.
- b) At least once every three academic years, each SBA Committee shall present a report of its activities before the general body of the SBA. A vote shall be conducted among the General Body of the SBA, and the Committee shall be reconstituted in the next academic year only if at least 10% of the General Body of the SBA votes in favour of the same. An SBA Committee that fails to secure the required number of votes shall be removed from Schedule 1.
- c) The SBA Office-Bearers, in consultation with the SBA Advisor, shall notify guidelines for the creation of new SBA Committees and SBA Journals. A new SBA Committee may be added to Schedule 1 only if at least 20% of the SBA supports the creation of the committee.
- d) At the start of each Academic Year, the Coordination Council in consultation with the SBA Office-Bearers and the SBA Advisor shall notify the number of membership vacancies in each committee, for the subsequent academic year. Each SBA Committee shall only select an odd number of members in a given year.
- e) The members of the SBA Committees shall be selected on the basis of the Membership Criteria prescribed under Article 13 of this Constitution. The editors of the SBA Journals shall be selected as per a selection procedure notified by the SBA Office-Bearers, in consultation with the SBA advisor and the SBA Journals.
- f) The members of the various SBA Committees and SBA Journals shall be selected no later than the first month of every academic year.
- g) Membership is restricted to only one SBA Committee and one SBA Journal for a given academic year.
- h) No member of the SBA can be selected to any one SBA Committee for more than three academic years during their tenure at the University.

- i) Each SBA Committee shall select one person from among themselves to be the Convenor, within 7 days of the selection of its members. Where the size of the SBA Committee exceeds five members, the SBA Committee may elect no more than one additional person as Joint Convenor.
- j) An SBA Committee may remove a Convenor or Joint-Convenor from their post by serving notice to the SBA Advisor and the respective Convenor or Joint-Convenor, followed by a two-third majority vote in support of removal.
- k) Elections shall be conducted by the SBA Office-Bearers in the following manner:
 - i. All prospective candidates shall announce their candidature at least 24 hours prior to the elections.
 - ii. Members shall cast their votes through a secret ballot. The Co-Presidents shall maintain confidentiality of all votes.
 - iii. A candidate who secures more than 50% of the votes, shall be deemed elected to the post.
 - iv. If no candidate has secured enough votes, another ballot shall be conducted between only the candidates securing the highest and second-highest number of votes in the first ballot.
- l) A person who has been elected as the Convenor or Joint-Convenor of an SBA Committee shall not be eligible for membership of the same SBA Committee in any subsequent academic year.
- m) If the position of Convener or Joint-Convener falls vacant for any reason, fresh elections shall be conducted within 7 days.
- n) The SBA Committees shall take office immediately upon constitution and shall hold office until the constitution of a fresh committee in the succeeding academic year.
- o) The SBA Committees shall stand constituted upon the elections of the Convener and Joint-Convener.

Provided that any vacancy in membership arising within 7 days of constitution shall be filled as per the available wait-list. Such change in membership shall not be grounds for fresh elections.
- p) The SBA Committees shall have the responsibility to enable and facilitate the conduct and coordination of their activities for the benefit of the SBA and shall be entitled to take appropriate decisions in this regard.
- q) The SBA Committees shall issue appropriate guidelines, as and when necessary, in the conduct of their activities. Once issued, these guidelines shall continue to operate till amended. Such amendment shall be prior to the holding of their activities.
- r) The Convener of an SBA Committee shall have the authority to convene meetings of the Committee. The quorum for meetings of an SBA Committee shall be 50% of the members. All decisions shall be taken through a simple majority vote among all members of the SBA Committee, provided that the Convener shall have an additional casting vote in case of a tie.

- s) All SBA Committees shall strictly comply with all policies notified by the Student Council in regard to selection procedures. In the case of a conflict between an SBA Committee's notified selection criteria and the Student Council policy, the Student Council policy shall prevail.
- t) All grievances related to an SBA Committee's functioning may be first notified to the SBA Office-Bearers, who shall attempt to resolve the grievance amicably between the complainant and the SBA Committee. The aggrieved party may also submit a written complaint to the SBA Advisor, who shall then resolve the matter in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution and other relevant rules.
- u) Removal of members shall be initiated upon two-thirds of the SBA Committee making a request in writing giving reasons as to why the removal of a member is being sought to the SBA Advisor. The SBA Advisor shall then verify the grounds of the removal and give consent for the removal, upon which it shall be binding.
- v) A member of an SBA Committee may resign by submitting a letter of resignation to the SBA Advisor. The resignation shall take effect upon receipt of the mail by the SBA Advisor.

ARTICLE 4 – THE COORDINATION COUNCIL

- a) The Coordination Council shall consist of the Co-Presidents, and the SBA Committees and SBA Journals as voting members; and the Programme Coordinators, as defined under Article 5, as observers.
- b) The Co-Presidents and the SBA Committees shall each have one vote in this Council.
- c) The SBA Committees shall be represented by their respective Convenors. Each committee's vote in this Council shall be cast by their Convenor. In the absence of the Convenor, the Joint-Convenor shall cast such vote.
- d) SBA Journals shall be represented by their Chief-Editors, and shall only have votes in issues that directly concern the functioning of a Journal. Provided that the SBA Office-Bearers shall determine if an issue directly concerns the functioning of a Journal.
- e) There shall also be a Journal Council, comprising of all the Chief-Editors of each SBA Journal, to guide the functioning of SBA Journals. The composition and functioning of SBA Journals shall be in accordance with the policies notified by the Journal Council, in consultation with the SBA Office-Bearers and the SBA Advisor.
- f) The Coordination Council shall be free to meet as a full Council or in part depending upon the circumstances. Provided that attendance by 50% of the voting members shall constitute quorum for meetings of the Coordination Council.
- g) All meetings of this Council shall be open for members of the SBA to attend. Any resolution passed in such meeting shall be notified to the SBA within 24 hours.
- h) The Coordination Council shall be responsible for:
 - i. supporting the Co-Presidents and Committee Secretary in the coordination of student committee activities;

- ii. supporting the Co-Presidents and Committee Secretary in the mediation and resolution of grievances relating to its functioning.
- i) The Coordination Council may invite any student group as an Observer to their proceedings, through a simple majority vote of the Council, from among those present and voting. Any such student group may also request the Coordination Council for such invitation at any time.
- j) No student group other than the Student Council, SBA Committees, SBA Journals and Observers shall be entitled to negotiate for or claim from the funds in the SBA budget, claim institutional affiliation with the University or avail use of the NLSIU logo or any university resources.
- k) All policies decided by the Coordination Council or the Journal Council shall be notified to the Student Body and shall be applicable on successive Councils, unless expressly amended or repealed by majority vote.

ARTICLE 5 – THE STUDENT COUNCIL

- a) The Student Council shall be composed of the SBA Co-Presidents and the Class Representatives.
- b) The Class Representatives shall be selected at the beginning of each academic year and shall consist of at least two members from each section of each full-time Programme, at least one of which positions shall be reserved for students who are women or belong to a gender minority.
- c) The Class Representatives of each full-time Programme shall elect from among themselves one Programme Coordinator, who shall serve as the coordinator for all matters relating to that Programme.
- d) The SBA Office-Bearers shall be the ex-officio convenors of the Student Council and shall convene meetings of the council at least once a month.
- e) For all votes conducted within the student council for any purpose, the representatives of each batch of each programme shall have a cumulative of one vote. Any disagreement between the representatives of each batch regarding the vote shall be resolved in consultation with the concerned class.
- f) The Student Council may invite any student group as an Observer to their proceedings, through a simple majority vote of the Council.
- g) All meetings of this Council shall be open for members of the SBA to attend. Any resolution passed in such meeting shall be notified to the SBA within 24 hours.
- h) The Student Council shall have the right to meet the SBA Patron at least once every trimester.
- i) The functions of the Student Council shall include:
 - i. Representing the interests of all batches before the SBA Office-Bearers and the University Administration:

- ii. Supporting the SBA Office-Bearers in the discharge of their functions under this Constitution;
- iii. Resolving any disputes or disagreements between the SBA Office-Bearers;
- iv. Holding the SBA Office-Bearers and all other bodies functioning under the SBA accountable in discharging their obligations to the student body;
- v. Coordinating with the student body and the University with a view towards improving the welfare of students and integration of students across courses;
- vi. Facilitating the maintenance and enhancement of the academic standards of the University.
- vii. Ensuring student-teacher coordination regarding reading materials, examinations, project guidance, project submissions, viva-voce and other related matters.
- viii. Discharging all duties of the Student Academic Council recognized under the NLSIU Academic and Examination Regulations.

ARTICLE 6 – THE SBA Advisor

- a) The SBA shall have one member of the University Staff nominated by the Patron as the SBA Advisor, to advise and guide the SBA Office-Bearers, and also function as the Advisor of the Coordination Council.
- b) The SBA Advisor will guide all SBA Committees and Journals in the performance of their functions, in the development of their programmes and budget requirements, supervise their implementation, recommend to the Patron on actions required and facilitate the coordination of the various activities of the SBA with the other activities of the University.
- c) The SBA Advisor shall have the right to attend the meetings of their respective Committees or the Councils, as the case may be, and withhold permission on any activity they consider undesirable in the context of the overall ethos of the University.
- d) The SBA Advisor, or any other body notified by the Patron, shall resolve all grievances relating to the constitution functioning of the bodies under this Constitution.

ARTICLE 7 – FINANCES AND AUDIT

- a) The Finance Committee shall assist the SBA Office-Bearers with respect to the finances of the SBA. The SBA Office-Bearers shall every month verify that there is a maintenance of accounts, supporting documents, and an observance of budget heads by the Finance Committee.
- b) At the beginning of each academic year, the Convenors shall prepare a scheme of activities for the whole year and prepare a budget thereof and submit the same to the SBA Office-Bearers.
- c) The SBA Office-Bearers shall, with the assistance of Finance Committee, gather all such estimates and programs and prepare a consolidated scheme of activities and budget. The said consolidated scheme of activities and budget shall be placed before the Coordination Council for suitable recommendations and shall thereafter be presented to the SBA Advisor who in turn shall make recommendations to the Patron.

- d) The final scheme of activities and budget shall be prepared by the SBA Office-Bearers, in consultation with the Coordination Council, and the same shall be notified to the SBA. Thereafter any re-allocation of funds shall be made only by the Coordination Council, in consultation with the SBA Advisor.
- e) Requisitions for the sanctioning of expenditure shall be made in writing to the Finance Committee by the concerned Convenor or the Co-Presidents (in the event there are general funds not related to a specific Committee) after being endorsed by the respective SBA Advisor.
- f) The Conveners or the Co-Presidents (in the event there are general funds not related to a specific Committee) shall be responsible for providing to the Finance Committee appropriate vouchers endorsed by the respective SBA Advisor for all expenditure incurred.
- i) The Finance Committee shall be responsible for the proper maintenance of accounts, supporting documents and for observing budget heads and shall be entitled to issue appropriate guidelines to the various organs of the SBA to ensure transparency and accountability with respect to the finances of the SBA.
- j) The accounts of the SBA shall be subject to the University audit each year and the audited accounts shall be notified by the SBA.

ARTICLE 8 – THE SBA OFFICE BEARERS

- a) There shall be two Co-Presidents of the SBA elected in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution and the SBA Presidential Election Procedure prescribed under Article 13 of this Constitution. One position shall be reserved for a woman or a person belonging to a gender minority, and one position shall be open to all students.
- b) There shall also be an SBA Residence Secretary and an SBA Committee Secretary. The SBA Residence Secretary shall be responsible for all residential life matters and coordinating with the Residence Life Team for this purpose. The SBA Committee Secretary shall be responsible for matters relating to student activities and campus life, and coordinating with the Coordination Council and Student Council for this purpose.
- c) The SBA Residence Secretary and SBA Committee Secretary shall be jointly nominated by the SBA Office bearers and confirmed by a simple majority of the Student Council. The Secretaries shall serve at the pleasure of the SBA Office-Bearers.
- d) The SBA Office-Bearers shall be elected in the first month of the academic year. The SBA Office-Bearers shall, on taking office, cease to hold any position under this Constitution that they previously held.
- e) The SBA Office-Bearers shall be jointly responsible to the organs of the Student Bar Association in the discharge of their functions. However, they may determine their specific individual responsibilities within the framework of their joint responsibilities and the same shall be notified to the SBA.

f) Subject to the disqualifications mentioned below, any full-time student who has been a member of an SBA Committee or the Student Council in the current or past academic years, shall be eligible to stand for the posts of the Co-Presidents.

Provided that for this purpose, a student who resigned or was removed during his tenure as a member of an SBA Committee or the Student Council, would not be deemed to be eligible.

g) A student shall not be eligible to stand for the posts of Co-Presidents if they have been:

i. Found guilty of serious misconduct by the University; or

ii. Found to be politicizing the SBA in terms of bringing in party politics either through student mass organizations, fronts or through any other means having a similar effect.

h) The Co-Presidents shall be elected directly by a vote conducted among all members of the SBA.

i) All decisions with respect to the conduct of the elections and the implementation of the provisions of this constitution with respect to elections shall be the responsibility of an Electoral Board appointed by the Patron.

j) The Co-Presidents shall be responsible to the SBA-

i. for representing the interests of the SBA and the University with the support of the Student Council;

ii. for effective coordination of the activities of the SBA with the support of the Co-ordination Council and Student Council;

iii. for ensuring effective mediation and resolution of grievances regarding functioning of committees with the support of the Coordination Council and Student Council;

iv. for ensuring transparency in the functioning and working of the Constitution;

v. consulting and keeping the Student Council informed on matters of general importance.

k) The Co-Presidents shall have the right to attend the meetings of any Committee or any council constituted under this constitution and advise on the programs of such Committee or Council. They shall have the right to seek relevant information from such Committee or Council to ensure its effective and fair functioning.

l) The Co-Presidents shall not be eligible for re-election to either of the posts or to the posts of Convenor or Joint Convenor of the SBA Committees for the remainder of their academic term at NLSIU.

ARTICLE 9 – REMOVAL OF SBA OFFICE-BEARERS

a) The Co-Presidents may be removed from office by the General Body of the SBA and the post shall thereafter be filled up in accordance with Article 11.

b) Removal proceedings may be instituted by either:

- i. a request in writing made to the SBA Advisor, by not less than 20% of the total strength of the SBA. Such request must lay down in detail the grounds on which removal is being sought; or
 - ii. a request in writing made to the SBA Advisor, by not less than two-thirds of the members of the Student Council. Such request must lay down in detail the grounds on which removal is being sought.
- c) On the receipt of such notice, the SBA Advisor shall provide a copy of such request to the person sought to be removed. The SBA Advisor shall thereafter convene a General Meeting of the SBA on the third day after the notification. At such General Meeting, one of the persons who made the request shall explain the grounds mentioned in the request and the person sought to be removed shall have the opportunity to defend himself/herself.
- d) The quorum for such meeting shall be 50% of the total strength of SBA.
- e) The request for removal will need to be passed by at least a simple majority of the members present and voting and shall take effect immediately.

ARTICLE 10 – REMOVAL OF THE CLASS REPRESENTATIVES

- a) A Class representative may be removed from office by the members of the concerned class and the post shall thereafter be filled up in accordance with Article 3(fb), within 14 days.
- b) Removal proceedings may be initiated by a request in writing made to the SBA Office-Bearers, by not less than 25% of the total strength of the class. Such request must lay down in detail the grounds on which removal is being sought.
- c) On receipt of such notice, the SBA Office-Bearers shall provide a copy of such request to the representative sought to be removed and such person shall be permitted 24 hours to provide a written reply to the SBA Office-Bearers and the concerned class.
- d) The SBA Office bearers shall thereafter convene a Meeting of the concerned class on the third day after the notification. At such meeting, one of the persons who made the request shall explain the grounds mentioned in the request and the person sought to be removed shall have the opportunity to defend himself/herself.
- e) The quorum for such meeting shall be 50% of the total strength of the Class.
- f) The request for removal will need to be passed by at least two-thirds of the members present and voting and shall take effect immediately.

ARTICLE 11 – VACANCY IN OFFICE

- a) On a vacancy arising in the office of the Co-Presidents due to any reason whatsoever, the other Co-President shall assume all the duties and functions of the SBA Office-Bearers. If there is a vacancy of both the posts of Co-Presidents, the Student Council shall elect one person from among themselves to fill the post of Co-Presidents.

- b) On a vacancy arising in the office of a Convenor of an SBA Committee due to any reason whatsoever, the Joint Convenor of the said Committee, if there is one, shall assume the office of Convenor. If there is no Joint Convenor, the post of such Convenor shall be filled by the concerned Committee in accordance with Article 3(j). The same principle shall apply for a temporary vacancy exceeding a month arising in the office of a Convenor of an SBA Committee during such temporary vacancy.
- c) Any vacancy arising in any office/position under this Constitution, due to any reason whatsoever, shall be filled at the earliest in accordance with the procedure laid down for appointment to such office/position.

ARTICLE 12 – AMENDMENTS

- a) SBA will have the authority to recommend amendments to this Constitution and Regulations. Such amendments will come into effect once the Patron gives approval. On the recommendation of the Co-Presidents, the Student Council, or on the recommendation of 50 members of the SBA, the General Body of the SBA may consider any amendment to this Constitution, in accordance with the provisions hereof.
- b) A meeting of the General Body of the SBA shall be convened by the Co-Presidents by providing a week's notice and by notifying the proposed amendment along with such notice.
- c) The quorum for such meeting shall be 50% of the total strength of the SBA.
- d) The proposed amendment will need to be passed by at least two-thirds of the members present and voting.
- e) The amendment shall then be forwarded to the Patron and shall come into force on receiving the approval of the Patron, and being duly notified to the SBA.

ARTICLE 13 – RULE MAKING

- a) The Membership Selection Criteria for each SBA Committee shall be notified by the SBA Committee within thirty days of its constitution. Changes in such criteria may be made by the Advisor in consultation with the SBA Office-Bearers.
- b) The SBA Committees shall notify to the SBA, the particulars of points earned by each member of the SBA, in accordance with their respective Membership Criteria, after the completion of any event.
- c) The SBA Presidential Election procedure shall be notified by the SBA Advisor immediately after the commencement of this Constitution. Changes in the same may be made by the SBA Advisor, on the recommendation of the Student Council. The changes shall come into force on their receiving the approval of the Patron and shall immediately be notified to the SBA.
- d) The Student Council shall have the authority to frame any residuary rules or changes to any existing rules in order to facilitate the effective functioning of the SBA.

ARTICLE 14 – MINUTES AND RECORDS

- a) The Convenors of the SBA Committees shall maintain a record of the minutes of all meetings of their Committees. In addition, copies of minutes shall be provided to the SBA Advisor.
- b) The SBA Office-Bearers shall maintain a record of the minutes of all meetings of the General Body of the SBA.
- c) The Committee Secretary shall maintain a record of the minutes of all meetings of the Coordination Council and the Student Council.
- d) Minutes on matters which affect the SBA shall be notified within 24 hours of the conclusion of the meeting.
- e) There shall be an SBA Archive which contains the above-mentioned records and minutes, and other information of relevance to the functioning of the SBA and such minutes and records shall be made available to all members of the SBA.

ARTICLE 15 – MISCELLANEOUS

- a) At the end of each year, the SBA Office-Bearers may recommend to the Patron, the list of students who have given outstanding performances in one or more activities who may be awarded prizes or otherwise recognized by the University. In addition, the University on its own may also decide to award prizes/certificates to those who contributed to the enrichment of the life of the University.
- b) The SBA Office-Bearers on the basis of recommendations of the appropriate Committee may sponsor representative teams for participation in conferences/competitions outside the University.
- c) Notification to the SBA shall mean communication through electronic mail, or any through any other public forum accessible to all members of the SBA.
- d) All meetings referred to in this constitution may be conducted by way of a video-conferencing platform. Voting in such meetings may be conducted through a digital means of recording individual votes, provided that all individual votes shall be made publicly available.
