NOTIFICATION

ADMISSION TO THE NLSIU BA (Hons.) PROGRAMME

NLSIU announces admission to its 3-year BA (Hons.) programme with the option of an additional 4th year in the research track. The academic year for the programme will commence on July 1, 2027.

PROGRAMME DESCRIPTION

NLSIU has pioneered and developed an integrated 5-year BA LLB (Hons.) degree that transformed Indian legal education. Several NLSIU graduates have pursued further degrees in humanities, social sciences, and business and then embarked on very successful careers in these fields.

As NLSIU develops into a multi-disciplinary university, in line with national and state education policies, the NLS BA (Hons.) programme has evolved organically from 35 years of experience in offering the integrated 5-year BA LLB (Hons.) programme.

The design and structure of the BA (Hons.) programme received formal approval from the University's governing bodies in 2024. The Programme welcomed the first cohort in July 2025. In 2027-28, NLSIU will be admitting the third cohort in this new programme.

The NLS BA is uniquely designed to include :

- I. A Common Core series of foundational courses jointly offered to all first year undergraduate students across the BA and BA LLB programmes;
- II. Option of selecting a major-minor track or a double major track in the disciplines of History, Sociology & Anthropology, Politics, Economics;
- III. Learning a selection of Indian languages;
- IV. Practice courses in areas such as AI & Machine Learning, Film-making, Business Consulting, User Experience Research, Digital Journalism, Creative Writing, Entrepreneurship, Policy Advocacy and Analysis.
- V. Four internships to be completed in three years of the programme towards making the student ready for the challenges of the workforce.

ELIGIBILITY

Any person who has secured the higher secondary qualification [10+2 or an equivalent examination or programme] from any recognized board or school of education is eligible to apply to the programme. Applicants in the general category should have graduated with an aggregate of not less than 55% of total marks. Applicants in the SC/ST category should have graduated with an aggregate of not less than 45% of total marks.

Students in the final year of their higher-secondary education are also eligible to apply for the programme. However, their provisional offer of admission shall be contingent upon the successful completion of their higher-secondary education with the minimum aggregate marks specified above. Selected applicants shall receive a provisional admission offer and be required to produce the mark-sheet/transcript showing that they have completed their higher-secondary education, failing which they shall lose their right to be considered for admission. Proof of completion of the qualifying degree has to be submitted no later than December 31, 2027.

ADMISSIONS PROCESS

The maximum intake for the NLS BA (Hons) Programme for the Academic Year 2027-28 is 60 and ONLY students qualifying as per the criteria set out below will be admitted. Admission to the programme will be through an all-India written admissions test: NLSAT-BA.

NLSAT-BA

All candidates seeking admission to the programme shall appear for the NLSAT-BA. The NLSAT-BA will have a single question paper comprising two parts – Parts A and B. All candidates shall be required to attempt both parts of the question paper. The examination shall be for a duration of 150 minutes.

Part A:

Part A of the NLSAT-BA paper will consist of Multiple-Choice Questions and shall be for a maximum of 75 marks. Each question will be of one mark. 0.25 marks shall be deducted for each wrong answer, and for each unanswered question.

Part A will constitute the first stage of the admissions process. A rank list of candidates will be prepared based on their performance in Part A of the NLSAT-BA. To be eligible for evaluation of Part B of the NLSAT-BA paper, a candidate should have secured more than zero marks in Part A of the paper. From amongst these eligible candidates, Part B of the NLSAT-BA answer scripts will be evaluated in a ratio of 1:5 based on performance in Part A. That is, five candidates per seat available in a category will qualify on the basis of their performance in Part A for evaluation of Part B of the examination.

Part B

Part B shall consist of subjective questions, which shall be for a maximum of 75 marks.

A fresh and final rank list shall be prepared on the basis of cumulative performance in Parts A and B of the NLSAT-BA. Offers of admission shall be made according to this final rank list, subject to the candidate satisfying the following conditions:

- (a) The candidate should have secured more than zero marks in both Parts A and B of the NLSAT-BA.
- (b) The candidate's cumulative score (sum of Part A and Part B) should be above the 75th percentile of the eligible candidates if they have applied under the General and EWS categories. Their score should be above the 40th percentile of the eligible candidates if they have applied under the SC/ST/OBC-NCL or PWD categories.
- (c) In cases where more than one candidate obtains the same aggregate score of Part A and Part B, the marks obtained in Part B shall be used to break the tie between them and determine their rank.

Admission offers will be made to the top 15 candidates on the merit list for each of the majors, prepared on the basis of cumulative performance in Parts A and B of the NLSAT-BA.

The final admission offers will be communicated on the admission portal by the end of May 2027. A candidate's provisional admission will become final only after verification of the original documents and payment of fees. The Academic Year will commence on July 1, 2027.

Note: The applicable reservations policy shall be applied at each stage of the admissions process.
